

Recently I have been to Bulgaria.

Very lovingly Ekaterina offered me a therapy session of Ayurvedic Breast Massage.

I have certified her last year for offering this session.

Already during the training I could see it that 'this girl' has hands and heart for this work!

So much sincerity and awareness!

That time did not know I would already in a year time actually experience it!

For a teacher a real certificate is the one when the teacher can feel in reality how the student is working.

After working whole day in the training very intensely Ekaterina took me to her palace. And in spite of the whole days work, she was full of loving energy to share this work.

She has created such an atmosphere for the session and got full grades for it. If possible I would give her more than 100% for the preparation of the session room.

And the session itself was with full presence and Love.

Gracefulness is the quality of Ekaterina.

And this time she got the real certificate from my heart!!!

I am proud of Ekaterina for spreading this work with so much Love, Joy and Grace.

I am sure more and more women will get the benefit of this work through the loving hands of Ekaterina.

Thanks Ekaterina....I totally enjoyed the session...
